Join us Tuesday, November 17th for a webinar: Retirement Community Spotlight Series: Landis Communities

Making a decision about moving to a retirement community can be intimidating and stressful. Not only are you considering possibility leaving your home but there are so many other questions to be answered:

- What types of housing options are available?
- What levels of health care are available at each community?
- Should I consider at-home care instead?
- What is this going to cost and how will I pay for it?
- Which community is best for me?

We know that many of our clients are thinking about their long-term living and health care. As your partner in these major decisions, we want to help you explore your options and make sure your questions are answered.

On Tuesday, November 17th at 1:00pm we will be joined by Landis Communities. We will learn about the various living choices and amenities available at their communities. If living at home for as long as possible is important to you, this webinar should be of particular interest. Landis Communities has a unique partnership with Friends LifeCare that offers care in your home, when needed, and helps protect your assets. We'll hear about how this program can help you stay in your home while receiving the care services you need..
